[Script Segment] "Level one, $600."

Video Prompt: Image-to-video, 2 seconds. Animate the provided frame in the same flat 2D cartoon webtoon style: bold black outlines, soft cel shading, no style drift, no photorealism and no morphing of characters. Motion: the protagonist sits slumped on the couch holding a phone; a large bank app screen floats beside him reading '$600.00' in bold text, performed with limited, smooth 2D animation. The protagonist keeps his deadpan expression and blinks slowly once; any movement is small and deliberate. Ambient motion: the TV glow flickers softly on the walls. Camera: a slow, subtle push-in, otherwise steady. Lighting stays consistent: dim warm lamp light mixed with blue TV glow, soft shadows. Pacing: calm and measured, in a tense, quiet mood. On-screen text stays sharp and unchanged. No new characters, no cuts, no audio.
